

ACCOUNTANT'S COMPILATION REPORT

To the Board of Directors
Texas Sporting Clays Association, Inc.

We have compiled the accompanying statement of financial position—cash basis of Texas Sporting Clays Association, Inc. as of December 31, 2010, and the related statement of activities—cash basis for the three and twelve months then ended. We have not audited or reviewed the accompanying financial statements and, accordingly, do not express an opinion or provide any assurance about whether the financial statements are in accordance with the cash basis method of accounting.

The Board is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with the cash basis method of accounting and for designing, implementing, and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements.

Our responsibility is to conduct the compilation in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services issued by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The objective of a compilation is to assist the Board in presenting financial information in the form of financial statements without undertaking to obtain or provide any assurance that there are no material modifications that should be made to the financial statements.

The Board has elected to omit substantially all of the disclosures ordinarily included in financial statements prepared on the cash basis method of accounting. If the omitted disclosures were included in the financial statements, they might influence the user's conclusions about the Organization's assets, liabilities, financial position, revenues, and expenses. Accordingly, the financial statements are not designed for those who are not informed about such matters.
