Happy holidays!

From my family to yours, we hope this holiday season gives you the peace and joy present with family and friends. As difficult as it is to miss a weekend at our favorite ranges, the rest is just what the doctor ordered with a busy year ahead of us.

For those of you worried about withdrawal, I'll see you at Rio the 30th, Cap cities on New Years Eve, and Caney Creek on New Years day.

Take a moment and put a pencil to your 2012 calendar, the great State of Texas has a packed schedule.

Review your goals, commit them to writing regardless if they are competitive or social goals, and let me know how the TSCA can help make it a better experience.

May God bless you this season!

Way overdue but here they are...some podium shots of our homegrown Texas shooters and some "transplant" Texas Shooters...and even some future shooters (that's Brad Kidd's son Miles, on the podium with Zach Kienbaum and Anthony Matarese Jr...fast forward about 15 years and I may be taking that same shot...

Nationals book to be ready by year end!

Reminder - you can use the "SEARCH" bar on the website to look for photos - use your first and last name.
